Shri Prashant Jayaswal consel for the petitioner.
Shri U.N.S.Deo, Govt. Advocate for the State.
I.A.No.5302 /2004 for urgent hearing are allowed.
Heard.

Shri Jayaswal submits that the petitioners were earlier transferred in the year 2003 and they were not relieved on the ground that there were elections for State Legislative Assembly and subsequently for Lok Sabha. It is pointed out that certain persons had filed various petitions including one bearing W.P.No.1465/2004 and this Court has passed the order dated 05.6.2004 directing that they be allowed to join to their places of posting and be relieved. It is pointed out that thereafter, as a counter blast to that, by order dated 18.6.2004, the transfer orders have been cancelled in a most cryptic and casual manner by just mentioning that those who have not been relieved and not handed over the charge till 18.6.2004 their transfers stand cancelled on administrative exigency with immediate effect.

The petitioners were making request for being relieved since 2003, but they were deliberately not relieved on the pretext that Vidhan Sabha elections are there and thereafter, Lok Sabha elections are to be held. Some of the employees have filed writ petitions before this Court and this Court had passed a detailed order directing the State to relieve them. The State should have relieved those persons in the year 2003 or in any case immediately after the Vidhan Sabha or Lok Sabha elections. The State and its officials are themselves responsible for not relieving them so as to join to the places of posting. During this period, many of them have shifted their families, got admitted their children in schools and just by one line cryptic order without assigning any reason, all transfers have been cancelled.

Having thus considered, so far as these orders are concerned, they are not sustainable and have to be set aside and are set aside. The question remains as to what is to be done for relieving.

Counsel for the parties submitted that the petitioners be given opportunity to make their representations.

The petitioners may make representations within 10 days from today, and on such representations being filed, they will be considered as early as possible preferably within 4 weeks. The State would consider all aspects of the matter and the relevant facts and circumstances under which they were transferred and not relieved. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, petitioners may avail the remedy under law.

This petition is disposed of with the above directions/ observations.

Accordingly, M.W.P.No.2081/2004 and I.A. No. 5303/2004 also stands disposed of.

C.C. as per rules.
